GLYNN'S ADDRESS

Greeted By Tumustuous Applause in Democratic National Convention at St. Louis

St. Louis, Mo., June 14.—The Democratic National Convention, at its lirst session today heard the keynote of Americanism and peace, preparedness and prosperity, sounded by former Governor Glynn, of New York, as temporary chairman, and with a high pitch of enthusiasm, emphatically registered by demonstration, its approval of President Wilson's peaceful conduct of foreign affairs.

The convention which had gotten under way with such perfunctory demonstrations as mark every national gathering of the kind soon stirred into roaring cheers as Chairman Glynn cited historic parallels to show that other presidents, including Republicans, had adjusted threatening foreign situations without rezort to war.

THE PASTORS AND THE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Every preacher in the county is meetally interested in the success of the Sunday School work in the county. Through the school comes the churches addition of members and workers. The most prosperous churches and most popular and useful pustors, are those giving closest attention to this great work. To neglect it, or blunder and drag along in it, is to "get eft" in the race. Of course, every aster in the county, who possibly can, will be at Concord next Wednesday.

Policy is American.

"The policy of the administration," he declared, "has been just as American as the American flag itself."

As he went down the list of presidents, recounting their action to avoid war, the delegates caught the spirit of his argument and as he referred to each particular president some delegate would call:

"What did he do?"

"He settled the trouble by negotiation," was the reply which Glynn invariably returned and the convention would rour its approval.

William J. Bryan, as a newspaper correspondent in the press stand, wenty with emotion as Glynn pictured the victories of peace, but he laughed with the crowd when a Texas delegate interrupting Glynn leaped to his chair and cried:

"And don't forget that policy also is satisfactory to William Jennings Bryan."

Dear Sir: I enclose subscription. We are very well satisfied in our Maryland home. We live in an upto-date neighborhood and have a fine lot of people for neighbors. Most of them live in splendid homes and their sons and daughters are well educated and refined. We have a county club in sight of our home, where the older members of the families meet every week or two and have their supplies, such as machinery, fertilizer, grass seeds, etc., ordered at wholesale prices, and the young people meet there almost every week for some social function.

PAPER "UNCLAIMED."

PAPER "UNCLAIMED,"

This office receives notice now and then from postmasters, notifiying it that a subscribers copy of the paper is "unclaimed"—dead in the office, and please discontinue the same. What this become of the subscriber is not stated, and often not known by the postmaster. It nearly always develops that said "absent" disappearing subscriber is behind with his dues. He picks up and walks off, saying nothing leaving no address. This is a convenient, method frequently adopted to get rid of creditors.

Is this "a square deal?" Is it honest? Of course not, but some, otherwise good folks, will pull up stakes and hike away to ports unknown, leaving debts behind, and particularly their dues to their county paper. When this class of careless, thoughtless, dishonest people confront St. Peter, at the Golden Gate, they may be asked a few embarrassing and unsuswerable questions.
